Drawing & Writing Prompts

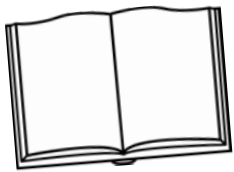

My name is:

Read & Draw

How to Use:

- Read the Bible story together.
- Stop to discuss concepts along the way as you read.
- If you're using The Gospel Storybook Bible, discuss the "Let's Talk About It!" questions at the end. Note: The last two OT read and draw prompts about Esther are not in The Gospel Storybook Bible.
- Ask your child to draw a picture related to the Bible story. If they'd like, they can label the picture by writing words in the picture. For example, if they draw a picture of Joseph, they can write "Joseph" beside him on the page.
- From time to time, go back through the pages to see what your child remembers about each Bible passage.

How to Use:

- Read the Bible story together.
- Stop to discuss concepts along the way as you read.
- If you're using The Gospel Storybook Bible, discuss the "Let's Talk About It!" questions at the end. Note: The last two OT read, draw, and write prompts about Esther are not in The Gospel Storybook Bible.
- Ask your child to draw a picture related to the Bible story.
- Ask your child to write a sentence or two about the Bible story or their picture on the lines at the bottom of the page.
- From time to time, go back through the pages to see what your child remembers about each Bible passage.
