

TIPS FOR MEMORIZING SCRIPTURE

Do you find memorizing Scripture difficult? To be honest, I find it a little more difficult the older I get.

But memorizing Scripture is SO important for our faith. I have found that God brings Scripture to mind when I'm discouraged or when I'm tempted to sin. I also like to pray using Scripture.

Grab this free chart and give to your kids. Spend a little time showing them how to use each strategy, then let them pick the one that works for them.

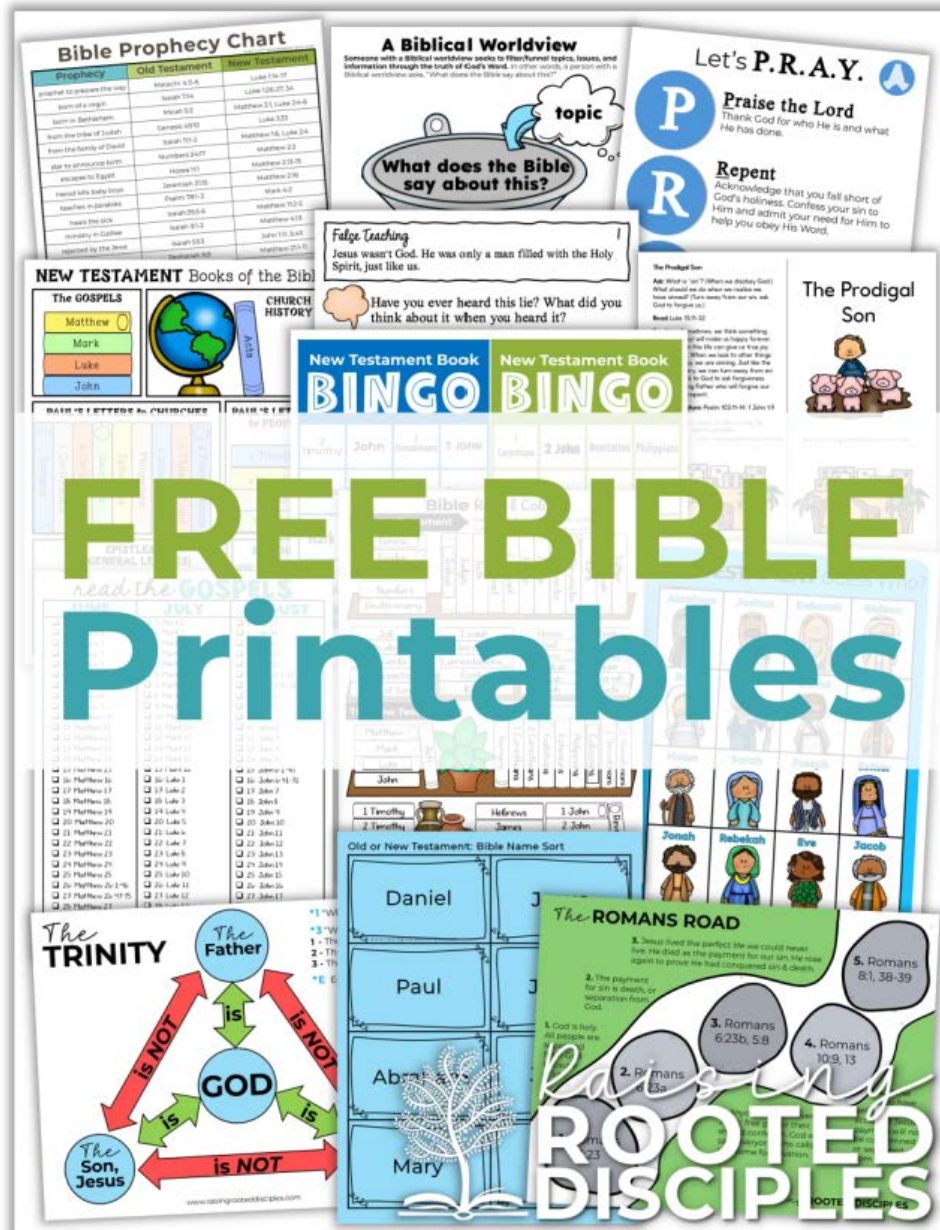

I pray it will encourage you and your kiddos to find ways to memorize Scripture easier.

IDEAS FOR MEMORIZING SCRIPTURE

SING IT! Put the verse to a tune you already know or write a new song for the verse. If you don't want to sing it, chant it to a rhythm.

CREATE MOTIONS to go with the Bible verse to help you remember the key words and ideas.

LOOK AT THE CONTEXT. Read what comes before and what comes after to help you understand who wrote it and why.

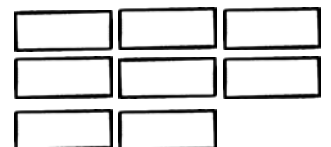

WRITE IT DOWN. Write the verse multiple times or write it once and display it in a place where you will see {and practice} it often.

SAY THE VERSE. Read and recite the verse out loud often. Repetition is KEY. Repetition is KEY.

LEARN ONE CHUNK AT A TIME.

Break down the verse into smaller bite-size chunks. Memorize each piece, and then put it all together.

VISUALIZE IT. Make a movie in your head using the concepts or the key words from the verse. It may also help to draw what you see.
