Color Printables

Pages 3-10:
You'll find three "I am Thankful…" options to tell what you're thankful for. One features four drawing areas for younger learners, one features leaves you can write on, and one is cards you can pass out to guests.
Also included are cards or a page where you can list things for each letter of the alphabet that you're thankful for. Another option with this one could be to list attributes of God you're thankful for. For example, A could be Alpha, B could be Benevolent, C could be Christ, etc. When my kids were younger, we used to take one letter a day and draw/write what we were thankful for.

Pages 11-14:
On these pages are Scripture verses and passages that talk about giving thanks in Scripture. Both Old Testament and New Testament verses are included. These are formatted as a one-page "Verses about Thankfulness" or as individual Scripture cards. The Scripture cards could be cut apart and passed out for people to read aloud. The question I challenge you to think about/answer with each other is: How do these verses encourage you to give thanks to God?

Pages 15-18:
I encourage you use these pages to write thank you to notes to each other. It is a good thing to show gratitude towards each other every day. During the Thanksgiving season, you could write and hide notes for others to "find" and read like we did HERE.
